DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

Research Professional is an online research funding platform that offers the possibility to search across thousands of national and international funding opportunities, to receive news and updates by email, and to save and share funding information.

UniTo subscribes to the Research Professional platform and the use is free of charge for all University members.

The proposed practical workshop aims to provide an overview on the Research Professional features in order to highlight how the use of the platform can enhance the chances to fund your research.
