

📌 PhD students and young scholars in legal sciences!

We are pleased to invite you to the V PhD Research Horizons Seminar at Kozminski University, taking place on-line on April 16, 2026.

PHD RESEARCH HORIZONS SEMINAR

SEMINAR SERIES

During the meeting, Wiktor Krzymowski Ph.D. will join us as a special guest, offering academic guidance on research methodology, doctrinal analysis, and effective presentation of legal arguments. Participants will also receive tailored feedback.

The central theme will be: Emerging Trends and Challenges of Doctoral Research in Law.

💡 For early-stage legal scholars, this seminar offers an excellent opportunity to:

- Present your concepts in English with a focus on reasoning and argumentation,
- Receive detailed feedback aimed at strengthening methodological rigor,
- Prepare for academic conferences, presentations, and discourse in a legal context.

🎓 If you prefer to participate as a listener, you will have the opportunity to:

- Observe critical academic discussion grounded in legal analysis,
- Gain insight into the structure and delivery of academic legal presentations,
- Build connections within the academic legal community.

The event is under the patronage of the Polish National Association of Doctoral Candidates (KRD) and Warsaw Forum of Doctoral Candidates (WFD).

📅 April 16, 2026 | 🖥️ On-line (MS Teams) | 🕒 18:00–19:30 CET

🔗 Register here (until 09.04): <https://forms.cloud.microsoft/e/z0rnBuZF0F>

Certificate of attendance will be provided to all registered participants!

Dr Wiktor Krzymowski, Advocate, LLM

Advocate specialising in pharmaceutical law, the EU law, and international trade law. He graduated with distinction from the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warsaw, completed his attorney traineeship at the Warsaw Bar Association, and is a graduate of the Postgraduate Programme in Medical Law, Bioethics and Sociology of Medicine at the University of Warsaw, where he also earned his PhD in pharmaceutical and reimbursement law. He is also a graduate of the British Law Centre and holds an LLM in International Commercial Law from Kozminski Academy. He runs his own boutique law firm. He is the author of numerous publications and frequently lectures at industry and scientific conferences.